18TH ANNUAL COMPUTERS IN LIBRARIES 2003

MARCH 12-14, 2003
WASHINGTON HILTON & TOWERS

REACH OVER 90,000 LIBRARIANS AND TOP INFORMATION PROFESSIONALs

The Preliminary Program for the Computers in Libraries 2003 conference – mailed to over 90,000 prospective attendees – will contain a limited number of advertising pages in 2003 available to exhibitors on a first-come, first-served basis. You won't want to miss out on this powerful opportunity to heighten your visibility in the CIL 2003 Preliminary Program!

The Computers in Libraries conference draws an audience dedicated to the latest technology, equipment software, and services available. The Program is mailed to librarians, information professionals, managers and specialists, systems professionals, Webmasters, content evaluators, intranet strategists, and portal creators. In addition to Information Today's in-house lists, mailing lists from SLA, ALA, ASIST and others will be used – all top-notch prospects!

The Preliminary Program contains all of the details of the conference and exhibition – sessions, exhibitors, and registration information. One of the many valuable benefits of placing an ad in the Preliminary Program is the extra reach such an advertising opportunity provides. The Preliminary Program is an excellent source of reference read by various people within a library or organization. It is used for a myriad of reasons and purposes, giving your advertising message continuous repeat exposure. No other advertising vehicle in the library and information field reaches out to such a massive targeted audience.

The cost to participate in the Computers in Libraries 2003 conference Preliminary Program is $4,995 (net) for a full-page, 4-color ad with a cover position and $4,495 (net) for run of book. The black and white page rate is $3,995 (net). Advertising dimensions are 7.25" wide and 10" deep. To submit ads electronically or on disk, visit: www.infotoday.com/advert/CTPAdSpecs.pdf for details. RESERVATION DEADLINE IS OCTOBER 7, 2002 and MATERIAL DEADLINE IS OCTOBER 14, 2002.
