

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR ALL SPEAKERS

Please sign, date, and return this permission slip to Information Today at your earliest convenience, but no later than at the time you submit your paper or PowerPoint slides for publication. We cannot publish your material without your signed permission. Even if you are not submitting anything for publication in the proceedings we need you to sign this agreement, as official acknowledgement of your consent to give a public presentation of your work.

We need your permission!

Thanks for agreeing to share your thoughts with the attendees at an Information Today, Inc. (ITI) conference. One small item of business . . .

Since by law you own (and will continue to own under this agreement) the copyright in both your written and oral presentation, you must sign this slip before you speak.

We can't publish your paper or slides in the official proceedings for this event unless we have this slip by press time.

By promptly signing and returning this permission slip, you will not only help us conform to legal requirements, but you'll help us assure that attendees receive the maximum benefit from hearing your talk.

Thanks for your cooperation in permitting us to provide a forum for your work.

Best Wishes,

Richard T. Kaser
Vice President, Content
